

MORNING APPEAL

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30

GOING TOO FAR.

Miss Francis Willard, the woman who is making a crusade against whiskey and tobacco, has requested the Pullman car company to discontinue the use of the smoking room on their cars because she thought that not long ago when traveling, she detected the faint odor of tobacco smoke. Of course, the Pullman company decline to do anything of the kind.

The lady is no doubt a very estimable person, but she belongs to a class of cranks who are constantly meddling with the business of other people.

We agree with the lady that whisky and tobacco are bad things to consume, but the majority of men who travel on the sleepers like to go into the smoking room, tell stories, smoke cigars and occasionally take a nip from a private flask. As long as they behave themselves it is their North American privilege to enjoy themselves in that way.

Miss Willard has certain ways of enjoying life which may not be in accord with the ideas of men who smoke cigars, but they are polite enough to mind their own business and allow Miss Willard to conduct herself as she pleases.

People are getting altogether too meddlesome in this nineteenth century, and Miss Willard is one of the most conspicuous examples we have noted for a long time.

The description of the Huntington-Hazelt wedding must be interesting reading for the respective families. It turns out that Miss Huntington is an adopted daughter and when she made the discovery that Mrs. Huntington was not her mother, she was all broken up, and when she met her real mother and learned that she had once sold groceries she treated her like a stranger. If it is true that the girl repudiated her own mother, then the Prince has about as good a wife as he deserves. By the time the pair have been snubbed in Court, set down on by the Berlin society and over a million or so in debt, there will be the devil to pay and no pitch hot, all round.

The Enterprise editor has just learned that the APPEAL printed a phonograph letter from Thomas Edison. If he will look in the APPEAL of Sunday and the Examiner of Monday of last week he will see the letter. If he will call at this office he can hear it from the phonograph on the payment of the regular 25c.

Edwin Booth, with characteristic generosity, gave $500 to the family of the late C. B. Bishop. Would there were more like him in the profession. Imagine Lawrence Barrett giving anything to anyone for any cause in any manner.

It is understood that Mr. Summerfield has declined the office of Land Commissioner and that the Nevada delegation have recommended Geo. C. Thaxter of this city.

The Cronin Trial.
CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—In the Cronin case to-day John F. O'Connor, Secretary of Camp 20, Clan-Na-Gael, produced a record of the proceedings of the Camp on the night of February 8, when, it is alleged, an order was made for the appointment of a secret committee to try Cronin. The records show that resolutions were passed that Senior Guardian Beggs notify the district officer that it was understood that the report of the committee which tried Sullivan, Boland and Feeley, members of the triangle, in Buffalo in October, 1889, had been given out in some of the camps, but had not been received by Camp 20. It was ordered that a secret committee of three be appointed by the Senior Guardian to investigate rumors regarding the trial of the executive body. This action was the result of remarks by Captain Thomas O'Connor, who said that he had heard the report of the Committee appointed to try the triangle read in another camp, and thought it strange that Camp 20 didn't get it.

A HALE OLD MAN.—Mr. James Wilson of Allens Springs, Ill., who is over sixty years of age, says: "I have in my time tried a great many medicines, some of excellent quality; but never before did I find any that would so completely do all that is claimed for it as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is truly a wonderful medicine." For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.
